

Quality Products Announces Management Transition

(Columbus, OH) Quality Products, Inc. (Pink Sheets: QPDC), a manufacturer and distributor of aircraft ground support equipment ("Columbus Jack" & "Regent Manufacturing") and industrial products ("Multipress", "Pacific Press", & "Fenn"), is pleased to announce the promotion of David Somers, Quality Products, Inc.'s current President, to the position of Chief Executive Officer of the company, succeeding Richard Drexler, the current CEO. The appointment will take effect October 1st, 2014. Mr. Somers will continue to report to Mr. Drexler, who will continue as Chairman of the Board of Quality Products, Inc.

Commenting on the promotion, Mr. Drexler said, "I am pleased for David to take over the day to day leadership. I have been proud to have guided the company. All of the people at the company have contributed to our success over the past decade. I will continue to be involved with the company from the Chairman position, and will be able to continue to provide counsel and guidance to David."

Mr. Somers added, "I am very honored to lead this company. The people here are first class, and have delivered truly outstanding results. My mission for the next several years is clear - first, manage the continued successful results of our current companies; second, grow the business through acquisitions; and third, actively develop our management talent.

"I also would like to thank Richard for his terrific leadership of the Company for the past twelve years. He has delivered incredible financial results. Perhaps even more importantly, Richard is the one who led the creation of the strong culture, he has lived it and demonstrated it every day. These are things that other companies talk about doing, but Richard has made them come alive. It is why Quality Products, Inc is so successful - It is the kind of place where I and others are excited to come to work and be free to do our best work."

Mr Somers has several decades of experience in operations management, strategic consulting and investment management. He was most recently the CFO of AnswersMedia, LLC. Prior to that he was an investment analyst with several different firms, covering many industries. He was also a management consultant with Booz Allen & Hamilton for eight years. Mr. Somers has an MBA from Harvard University and a Mechanical Engineering degree from Yale University.
